

SPRING 2024 Concert Series

Saturday, JAN 20 | STEVE KATZ

• 8:00 pm at the Summer House •

You may recall the band Blood Sweat and Tears. In 1970, they were the number one band in the world—the same year they won a Grammy for their Album of the Year. In June of that year, Blood, Sweat & Tears became the first American rock band to perform behind the Iron Curtain, doing concerts in Yugoslavia, Romania and Poland on a tour sponsored by the U.S. State Department. Steve Katz of Blood Sweat and Tears is coming to Spring Island in January 2024 to tell stories about the band's activities, play some familiar tunes on his guitar, and comment on the upcoming documentary soon to be released. Monday, JAN 29 | THE HIT MEN

Music of the 70's and 80's

• 8:00 pm at the Summer House •

This supergroup of super-talented sidemen and sessions musicians either played, sang or did both on tour or in the studio for some of the most memorable classic rock hits of the era, including "Feels Like The First Time" (Foreigner), "Live and Let Die" (Wings), "Eye In The Sky" (Alan Parsons), and "You May Be Right" (Billy Joel), using their talents to "wow" audiences internationally. In their exciting multi-media show, THE HIT MEN perform the hits that they helped rocket to the top of the Billboard charts, AND they share fascinating never-before-told backstage stories about their adventures with legends. Wednesday, FEB 7 | MOONDANCE

Music of Van Morrison

• 8:00 pm at the Summer House •

"A stunningly impressive and authentic rendition of Van Morrison... A spectacle not to be missed." Who among us doesn't appreciate the genius of Van Morrison? This legendary artist, distinguished by his Grammy wins and induction into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, rarely graces us with his presence in the United States. Thus, seven years ago, the acclaimed musician Ed Moran took it upon himself to gather a group of talented musicians who would pay tribute to Morrison through their performances. And so, Moondance was born. [$120]

Monday, FEB 26 | SHEMEKIA COPELAND

American Blues Vocalist

• 8:00 pm at the Summer House •

This 30-year old singer is well beyond her years. Her father Johnny Copeland, a well-known musician, encouraged her to sing from the start, even bringing her on stage at the Cotton Club when she was just 8. The rest is history. She won numerous awards, has earned the Blues Music and Living Blues awards, Best Vocalist of the Year, and four Grammy nominations. She is widely considered to be the greatest blues singer of our time. With her soaring gospel-tinged vocals and blues fusion Shemekia shows why she is rightfully being compared to Koko Taylor and to the great Etta James. [$100]

Monday, Mar 18 | MEGASTARS OF COUNTRY

• 8:00 pm at the Summer House •

During the past 11 years we had several bluegrass concerts but we never had a country music event. With over 50 percent of the population being country music fans we thought it might be time to bring "The Megastars of Country" show to Spring Island. It will be an evening listening to the songs of George Strait, Alan Jackson and Brooks and Dunn. Each of these megastars has left a lasting impact on country music with George Strait's numerous hits to Alan Jackson's soulful voice and Brooks and Dunn's innovative blend of rock. Megastars of Country is a musical celebration of the above mentioned great Country music stars. You will hear some of the greatest country hits ever recorded. [$95]

Monday, APR 8 | STORM LARGE of Pink Martini

• 8:00 pm at the Summer House •

Storm is a true force of nature, with a captivating voice that is both powerful and vulnerable, and a stage presence that will leave you spellbound. Her musical career started with time in San Francisco's underground music scene. She moved on to perform with a number of other groups including Pink Martini, with whom she recorded 2 albums and toured extensively in over 20 countries. Her real claim to fame took place in 2006 when she starred in the CBS reality show "Rock Star: Supernova" where her magnetic personality took hold. [$120]

Wednesday, APR 24 | THE BACON BROTHERS

• 8:00 pm at the Summer House •

Michael and Kevin Bacon are the epitome of harmonious brotherly love, showcasing what can be accomplished when two talented individuals sharing the same gene pool, combine their skills and amass an extensive body of work, including an impressive discography of 10 albums. Their mutual passion for music, has not only persevered but also flourished. Initially, their musical career progressed gradually, only to burgeon later on, culminating in two decades of tireless touring and the creation of the aforementioned ten albums. While Kevin's acting career may be widely known, Michael has rightfully earned his own acclaim as a proficient songwriter and Emmy-winning composer. [$120]
